PRABHUJEE (Swami Narayan Giri)

PRABHUJEE took birth in the family of Pradhan's at Naogaon under Sabang Police Station. During childhood his name was Kenaram Pradhan. He had two maternal uncles, named Iswar Chandra Maiti and Sarbeswar Maiti. Sarbeswar Maiti and his wife were childless couple and Sarbeswar died at an early age of 40 (forty). Iswar Maiti had a second sister, named Allhadi. She had no child and she became a widow within a few years of her marriage. She came to Bhisindipur to stay with her brother.

Kenaram continued his study at his maternal uncle's place. Once Kenaram, at the age of eight went to Gangasagar Mela with his aunt Allhadi. While enjoying the Mela, Kenaram was missed. As he recalled this event later, he said that a person took him to Sri Yukteswar Giri Maharaj's camp which was situated near Kapil Muni's Ashram. After missing Kenaram started crying, to calm him Sri Yukteswar Giri gave him some sweets and asked his whereabouts. After listening from Kenaram, Sri Yukteswar Jee announced the name of his aunt and to take her nephew from the camp. Kenaram's aunt (Masima) was overwhelmed with joy and took back Kenaram. His aunt described everything about Sri Yukteswar Giri Jee, the eminent KRIYA YOGA master.

It became very difficult for Kenaram to stay at home. He repeatedly requested his aunt to send him to Sri Yukteswar Jee's Ashram. To fulfil the wish of Kenaram his aunt introduced him to a person known as Srinivas Hajra.

One day both Kenaram and Hajra went to Ijmail chhak to know the whereabouts of Sri Yukteswar Giri Jee. After collecting all the information about him, they went to Durgapur Kriya Yoga congregation where Kenaram for the second time saw Sri Yukteswar Giri Jee from a distance. Later on one day he left home and went directly to the Ashram at Srirampur near Howrah. At that time he was about 12/13 years old. It was well known to Masima that onday definitely he will go to Sri Yukteswar Jee, Therefore neither Masima nor anyone else from the family went to search anywhere else. After a few days Masima went to Srirampur to meet and bless him to get success in his divine path.

After listening in details to Sri Yukteswar Girijee, Kenaram devoted himself under Karar Ashram of Puri. After taking Sanyas his Master named him Swami Narayan Giri (Prabhujee).

Once Swami Narayan Giri Jee met his uncle Iswar Maiti at Puri and took him to the ashram. Iswar Maiti stayed there for about 2 to 4 days. Iswar Maiti requested Swami Narayan Giri to come and stay with him at Bhisindipur, as there was no one in the family to inherit the property after him, Iswar Maiti wished to donate all his property in the name of Swami Narayan Giri and the Ashram.

Prabhujee took Maha Samadhi at Puri on 31st October, 1985. His Holiness Swami Shankarananda Giri, President of Kriya Yoga Foundation Trust named the School as PRABHUJEE ENGLISH MEDIUM SCHOOL after the name of Swami Narayan Giri (Prabhujee) as a mark of respect.
